

Horses and humans have always had a special relationship. Now, from California to Florida, treatment centers are offering equine-assisted therapy to help people with everything from drug addiction to cancer recovery.

BY ANNE KRUEGER, BARBARA HEY AND ANDREA REYNES

